TERROR THREAT ALERT!

The Inspector General of police has warned that the Al shabaab terror group is planning to infiltrate through Kenyan borders during the ongoing rainy season and launch terror attacks in Coast, North Eastern and Nairobi regions.

He has however reassured Kenyans that the security agencies are working round the clock to safeguard the country from the threat and requested all citizens to collaborate with the security agencies as they execute this noble duty.

You are hereby requested to cooperate with the security personnel in the University as they continue performing thorough searches on ALL vehicles and persons seeking access to the University without exception. You may volunteer information relating to suspicious persons, luggage and/or vehicles in the University by calling our control room on 0717035268, 0731453263, 020-4913149, and 020-3318262; or Police control room on 911, 999 and 112 or the nearest security office. We reiterate our commitment to provide a safe and secure environment for the University community.

W. M. WAHOME
